REALTOR® - FRIENDLY Candidates

Although Orange County REALTORS® does not endorse candidates for political office, its Political Affairs and Elections Committee does identify candidates whose positions on real estate-related issues qualify them as REALTOR® friendly.

GOVERNMENT TAKES A STRONG INTEREST IN REAL ESTATE.

Elected officials at the city, state, and national level make decisions about real estate that range from the mundane to the monumental and include open house sign size and placement, land use and zoning, business licensing requirements, point-of-sale mandates, property tax assessments, lending practices, mortgage interest rates, and the mortgage interest deduction. Thus, electing and reelecting candidates who are friendly to REALTORS® is an important means of protecting your business.

IF REAL ESTATE IS YOUR PROFESSION, THEN POLITICS IS YOUR BUSINESS.

The Political Affairs and Elections Committee (PAEC) is a standing committee of Orange County REALTORS®. Each member of this committee represents a specific city or supervisorial district. Every two years, PAEC trustees conduct interviews with political candidates. Based on these interviews—and on a questionnaire that each new candidate is asked to fill out—the trustees identify candidates who support the ideals of real property rights, free enterprise, and responsible government.

Note: Orange County REALTORS® does not endorse candidates for political office. INCUMBENT
