Who We Are

Professional Pride consumers are well-educated career professionals who have prospered through the Great Recession. To maintain their upscale suburban lifestyles, these goal-oriented couples work, often commuting far and working long hours. However, their schedules are fine-tuned to meet the needs of their school-age children. They are financially savvy; they invest wisely and benefit from interest and dividend income. So far, these established families have accumulated an average of $1.5 million in net worth, and their annual household income runs at more than twice the U.S. average. They take pride in their newer homes and spend valuable time and energy upgrading. Their homes are furnished with the latest in home trends, including finished basements equipped with home gyms and in-home theaters.

Our Neighborhood

- Typically owner-occupied, single-family homes are in newer neighborhoods: 59% of units were built in the last 20 years.
- Neighborhoods are primarily located in the suburban periphery of large metropolitan areas.
- Most households own two or three vehicles; long commutes are the norm.
- Homes are valued at more than twice the U.S. median home value, although three out of four homeowners have mortgages to pay off.
- Families are mostly married couples (almost 80% of households), and more than half of these families have kids. Their average household size, 3.11, reflects the presence of children.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Professional Pride consumers are highly qualified in the science, technology, law or finance fields; they've worked hard to build their professional reputation or their start-up businesses.
- These consumers are willing to risk their accumulated wealth in the stock market.
- They have a preferred financial institution, regularly read financial news, and use the Internet for banking transactions.
- These residents are goal oriented and strive for lifelong learning and learning.
- Life here is well organized; routine is a key ingredient to daily life.

Market Profile

- These frequent travelers take several domestic trips a year, preferring to book their plane tickets, accommodations and rental cars via the Internet.
- Residents take pride in their picture-perfect homes, which they continually upgrade. They shop at Home Depot and Bed Bath & Beyond to tackle the smaller home improvement and remodeling tasks but contract out the larger projects.
- To keep up with their busy households, they hire housekeepers or professional cleaners.
- Residents are prepared for the ups and downs in life; they maintain life insurance; homeowners and auto insurance; as well as medical, vision, dental, and prescription insurance through work. They are actively investing for the future; they hold 401(k) and IRA retirement plans, plus securities.
- Consumers spend on credit but have the disposable income to avoid a balance on their credit cards. They spend heavily on Internet shopping; Amazon.com is a favorite website.
- Consumers find time in their busy schedules for themselves. They work out in their home gyms, owning at least a treadmill, an elliptical or weightlifting equipment. They also visit the salon and spa regularly.
- All family members are avid readers; they read on their smartphones, tablets and e-readers but also read hard copies of epicurean, home service and sports magazines.
- Residents, both young and old, are tech savvy; they not only own the latest and greatest in tablets, smartphones and laptops but actually use the features each has to offer.

Who We Are

Consumers in Top Tier, Tapestry's wealthiest market, earn more than three times the average U.S. household income. They have the purchasing power to indulge any choice. Aside from expenses for the upkeep of their lavish homes, consumers select upscale salons, spas and fitness centers for their personal well-being and shop at high-end retailers for their personal effects. Whether short or long, domestic or foreign, their frequent vacations spare no expense. Residents fill their weekends and evenings with opera, classical music concerts, charity dinners and shopping. These highly educated professionals have reached their corporate career goals. With an accumulated average net worth of more than $1.5 million and income from a strong investment portfolio, many of these older residents have moved into consulting roles or operate their own businesses.

Our Neighborhood

- Married couples without children or married couples with older children dominate this market.
- Housing units are owner occupied with the highest home values and above-average use of mortgages.
- Neighborhoods are older and located in the suburban periphery of the largest metropolitan areas, especially along the coasts.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Top Tier is a highly educated, successful consumer market: more than one in three residents has a postgraduate degree.
- Annually, they earn more than three times the U.S. median household income, primarily from wages and salary, but also self-employment income and investments.
- These are the nation's wealthiest consumers. They hire financial advisers to manage their diverse investment portfolios but stay abreast of current financial trends and products.
- Socially responsible consumers who aim for a balanced lifestyle, they are goal oriented and hardworking but make time for their kids or grandkids and maintain a close-knit group of friends.
- These busy consumers seek variety in life. They take an interest in the fine arts; read to expand their knowledge; and consider the Internet, radio and newspapers as key media sources.
- They regularly cook their meals at home, attentive to good nutrition and fresh organic foods.

Market Profile

- They purchase or lease luxury cars with the latest trim, preferably imports.
- They contribute to arts/cultural organizations, educational and social groups, as well as NPR and PBS.
- Top Tier residents farm out their household chores—every service from property and garden maintenance and professional housekeeping to contracting for home improvement or maintenance projects.
- Consumers spend money on themselves; they frequently visit day spas and salons, use dry cleaning services, and exercise at exclusive clubs.
- Near or far, downtown or at the beach, they regularly visit their lavish vacation homes.
- When at home, their schedules are packed with lunch dates, book club meetings, charity dinners, classical music concerts, opera shows and visits to local art galleries.
- Top Tier consumers are shoppers. They shop at high-end retailers such as Nordstrom (readily paying full price), as well as Target, Kohl's, Macy's and Bed Bath & Beyond, and online at Amazon.com.
- At their level of spending, it makes sense to own an airline credit card. They make several domestic and foreign trips a year for leisure and pay for every luxury along the way—a room with a view, limousines and rental cars are part of the package.

An overview of who makes up this segment across the United States

Who We Are

Young professionals with families who have opted to trade up to the newest housing in the suburbs make up this growth market. Original Boomburbs neighborhoods began growing in the 1990s and continued through the peak of the housing boom. Most of those neighborhoods are fully developed now. This is an affluent market but with a higher proportion of mortgages. Rapid growth still distinguishes the Boomburbs neighborhoods, although the boom is more subdued now than it was 10 years ago. So is the housing market. Residents are well-educated professionals with a running start on prosperity.

Our Neighborhood

- Growth markets are in the suburban periphery of large metropolitan areas.
- Young families are married with children; average household size is 3.22.
- Home ownership is 84%, with the highest rate of mortgages, 78%.
- Primarily single-family homes, in new neighborhoods, 72% built since 2000.
- Median home value is $293,000.
- Lower housing vacancy rate at 5.3%.
- The cost of affordable new housing comes at the expense of one of the longest commutes to work, over 30 minutes average, including a disproportionate number (34.5%) commuting across county lines.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Well-educated young professionals, 52% are college graduates.
- Unemployment is low at 5.2%; high labor force participation at 72%; most households have more than two workers.
- Longer commute times from the suburban growth corridors have created more home workers.
- They are well connected: own the latest devices and understand how to use them efficiently; biggest complaints—too many devices and too many intrusions on personal time.
- Financial planning is well under way for these professionals.

Market Profile

- Boomburbs residents prefer late model imports, primarily SUVs, and also luxury cars and minivans.
- This is one of the top markets for the latest in technology, from smartphones to tablets to Internet connectable televisions.
- Style matters in the Boomburbs, from personal appearance to their homes. These consumers are still furnishing their new homes and already remodeling.
- They like to garden but more often contract for home services.
- Physical fitness is a priority, including club memberships and home equipment.
- Leisure includes a range of activities from sports (hiking, bicycling, swimming, golf) to visits to theme parks or water parks.
- Residents are generous supporters of charitable organizations.

An overview of who makes up this segment across the United States

Who We Are

Golden Years residents are independent, active seniors nearing the end of their careers or already in retirement. This market is primarily singles living alone or empty nesters. Those still active in the labor force are employed in professional occupations; however, these consumers are actively pursuing a variety of leisure interests—travel, sports, dining out, museums and concerts. They are involved, focused on physical fitness and enjoying their lives. This market is smaller, but growing, and financially secure.

Our Neighborhood

- This older market has a median age of 51 years and a disproportionate share (nearly 30%) of residents aged 65 years or older.
- Single-person households (over 40%) and married-couple families with no children (one-third) dominate these neighborhoods; average household size is low at 2.05.
- Most of the housing was built after 1970; approximately 43% of householders live in single-family homes and 42% in multi-unit dwellings.
- These neighborhoods are found in large metropolitan areas, outside central cities, scattered across the U.S.

Socioeconomic Traits

- Golden Years residents are well educated—20% have graduate or professional degrees, 26% have bachelor's degrees, and 26% have some college credits.
- Unemployment is low at 7%, but so is labor force participation at 55%, due to residents reaching retirement.
- Median household income is higher in this market, more than $61,000. Although wages still provide income to 2 out of 3 households, earned income is available from investments, Social Security benefits and retirement income.
- These consumers are well connected: Internet access is used for everything from shopping or paying bills to monitoring investments and entertainment.
- They are generous supporters of the arts and charitable organizations.
- They keep their landlines and view cell phones more as a convenience.

Market Profile

- Avid readers, they regularly read daily newspapers, particularly the Sunday edition.
- They subscribe to cable TV; news and sports programs are popular as well as on-demand movies.
- They use professional services to maintain their homes inside and out and minimize their chores.
- Leisure time is spent on sports (tennis, golf, boating and fishing) or simple exercise like walking.
- Good health is a priority; they believe in healthy eating, coupled with vitamins and dietary supplements.
- Active social lives include travel, especially abroad, plus going to concerts and museums.
- Residents maintain actively managed financial portfolios that include a range of instruments such as common stock and certificates of deposit (more than six months).
